

THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. HARDING will be the guests of honor at dinner this evening at the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Wallace. The dinner will be served in the Presidential suite at the New Willard and there will be covers for thirty. A number of out-of-town guests have arrived during the last few days to attend the dinner, including Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wallace, brother and sister-in-law of Secretary Wallace, and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Wallace, son and daughter-in-law of the hosts, who have come from Des Moines, Iowa. Other guests from Des Moines will include Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Grant McPherrin, Miss Mary Wallace and Miss Ruth Wallace, who is a student at Goucher College and came over for the dinner, will also be present.

THE WASHINGTON OPERA COMPANY'S presentation of "Samson and Delilah" at Central High School last evening—their one performance here this season, worse luck—stands out as a red-letter event socially as well as musically.

Despite all the entertaining which is being crowded into the last few days before Lent and the enforced change of plan which always mitigates against the success of an entertainment, society turned out in force—and in its best bib and tucker—to do honor to our own opera and to enjoy a performance which would have done credit to any company.

A pretty sight it was, the creamy walls of the spacious auditorium at Central, with the great glided pipes of the organ striking a decorative note, making an effective background for the company of distinguished men and women in evening dress. Some of the effect of the "golden horn shoe" was lost from the fact that it was impossible to obtain from the auditorium a good view of the front of the balcony, where the boxes were improvised. But a tour of inspection disclosed the fact that many lovely gowns, as well as many flashing jewels, were worn by the ladies in the boxes.

MRS. WILLIAM J. BOARDMAN and Miss Mabel Boardman entertained one of the most interesting box parties of the evening, having as their guests Mrs. William Howard Taft, Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. William Lassiter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren, Justice John H. Clarke and Thomas J. O'Brien.

In William Phelps Eno's box his cousin, Mrs. George Ehle, entertained Solicitor General and Mrs. James M. Beck, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Brooke and Mrs. Dean. Mr. Eno's sister, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, was also a box holder and had as her guests the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. J. Mayhew Wainwright, Judge and Mrs. Clarence Goodwin and Miss Mary Morgan.

Horace G. Macfarland and Mr. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mesta, who were out of town, gave their box to Miss Barrine Drake, who entertained Mrs. Willis Van Devanter and her son, Winslow Van Devanter, Miss Marian Calder, Mrs. Robert Corwin Lee, Captain Bergen, Ezra Gould and B. F. Weems.

Major and Mrs. George Oakley Totten entertained in their box Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Hubrecht, Mrs. Myron Parker, Mrs. Mary Stewart and Dr. William Gates. The brilliant director of the company and Mrs. Albion and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Reid Yates occupied a box together and had with them Commissioner and Mrs. Cuno Rudolph and Miss Mary Meek of Canada, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albion.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Logan had with them the Minister of Uruguay and Mme. Varela, Mr. Alvarez Buenavista, Mrs. Frank S. Hight and Daniel Waters.

From the deep interior of the Mya-tic Orient comes this old-fashioned ring of Chinese Princess. Through countless centuries it has been surrounded with deep superstition, believed to be a most magical talisman, in its power to bring to each and every wearer Luck, Health, Happiness, Long Life and Prosperity. It is true that Oriental superstition cannot, of course, be proved, but scores of wearers testify that it has brought good luck to them even in this modern age. Actresses, bankers, mechanics, card players, women and men everywhere assure us that a turn in their luck for the better came after they started wearing this ring. The popularity of this ring has been instantaneous and widespread. The last of the hour in fashionable New York Society. Be the first in your neighborhood to wear this curious talisman.

was given last evening at the Willard, and, as always, had much the aspect of a well-arranged private party. The ball room was well filled without being uncomfortably crowded, and groups of fashionable folk looked down upon the dancers from the boxes which lined the walls.

Many of the guests arrived late, coming on from the opera, and the young people lingered to dance until the small hours of the morning. The ball room was effectively decorated with palms and greens, with flags hung in striking effect against the dull gold walls. The Episcopal clergy were quite numerous present and many of them joined in the dancing.

The guests were received by several members of the board of lady managers of the home, Mrs. David Meade Lea, the president, heading the line, assisted by Mrs. Alexander C. Pope, the second vice president, Mrs. Henry W. Offutt, recording secretary, and Mrs. Lelia P. Draper, treasurer, to whom they were introduced by Newbold Noyes, chairman of the floor committee.

Mrs. Lea wore a lovely gown of black and gold brocade, with a design in colors worked into the pattern. It was made with a girdle of gold tissue swung low on the hips (Continued on Page 9.)

Pretty when she wakes up

Cleopatra's way

With a world of ancient beauty arts at her command, she depended on cleansing with Palm and Olive oils to protect, improve and preserve the freshness and smoothness of her skin.

This beautifying was not confined to face alone. The bath was a daily ceremonial with all ancient peoples, palm and olive oils the cleansers used.

Bathe with Palmolive and keep your skin smooth and white. It is a luxury all can afford.

This is the real test. The girl who wakes fresh and radiant, with a clear, smooth skin which has no defects to conceal, need not worry about her looks. She possesses the greatest of all attractions—the one which outshines all others.

This need not discourage the girl whose complexion is not so good. Proper care will soon transform a bad skin into one admired for its perfection.

Get rid of the clogging accumulations which cause coarseness and disfiguring defects and you will soon be complimented on your fresh blooming complexion.

The secret is simple and about 3,000 years old. It was discovered in ancient Egypt and practiced by Cleopatra.

Simple—Beautifying

The remedy for a coarse skin, for one disfigured with blackheads or ugly blotches, is daily cleansing with a lather blended from palm and olive oils.

Such a cleanser is so mild and soothing that it softens the skin and keeps it smooth. But it removes the accumulation of dirt, oil and perspiration which are responsible for most bad complexions.

You can't neglect your skin and expect to keep it blooming and alluring. The powder and rouge you use to conceal defects deceive no one.

The soothing cleanser

Palmolive is the modern combination of the same beautifying cosmetic oils Cleopatra used in the days of ancient Egypt. It is just as valuable today as a safe soothing cleanser.

Massage its smooth, creamy lather softly into the network of tiny pores which compose the surface of your skin. It will remove the clogging deposits which enlarge these pores, cause blackheads and invite blotches.

Dry skins are benefited by cold cream after cleansing. If unusual dryness is your trouble, apply a little cream before as well as after washing.

Popularity—Low price

Judge Palmolive by other soaps and you will expect to pay at least 25 cents a cake. But the popularity which keeps the Palmolive factories working day and night naturally reduces cost. Quantity production is always economical.

Thus this finest facial soap is offered at 10 cents a cake—a price all can afford. You can economically use Palmolive for every toilet purpose, for it costs no more than ordinary soap.
